Bangladesh Government Clears Grid Interconnection Projects to Boost Energy Supply

1 April 2015: Dhaka, Bangladesh

The Government of Bangladesh gave the go signal for two energy projects that will boost the country's capacity to import electricity from India. The two projects, roughly amounting to $204.6 million, will allow the country to import 600 megawatt (MW) electricity by boosting the country's transmission capacity and establishing a substation. The Asian Development Bank is funding interconnection facilities for the Bheramara-Bahrapur grid link project through the Bangladesh-India Electrical Grid Interconnection Project, under the South Asia Subregional Economic Cooperation (SASEC) Program.

Bangladesh Exports Bandwidth to India

21 April 2015: Dhaka, Bangladesh

The Cabinet of Bangladesh approved a 3-year agreement to export 10 gigabytes to India's northeastern states on lease and commercial basis. State-owned entity Bangladesh Submarine Cable Company Ltd (BSCCL) and Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd (BSNL) signed the "Agreement Between BSNL and BSCCL for Leasing of International Bandwidth for Internet at Akhaura (Zero Point)". India will benefit from the unused bandwidth from Bangladesh, as it is expensive to bring the line from Mumbai. Meanwhile, Bangladesh will earn revenues worth Tk 9.42 crore (approximately $1.2 million) annually.

India and Sri Lanka to Propose Resumed Negotiations on CEPA 9 April 2015: Colombo, Sri Lanka

A Bilateral Committee is to prepare a new draft framework between India and Sri Lanka and bring life back to stalled negotiations related to the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA). Trading partners usually graduate from a Free Trade Agreement (FTA) to CEPA based on positive experiences to consolidate trade benefits. However, several issues – non-tariff barriers, national protectionism, and others – remain unresolved 15 years after the implementation of the Indo-Sri Lanka FTA. The original objective of CEPA was also to deepen the existing FTA between India and Sri Lanka, including in the areas of services and investments. Read More >>
