SASEC Region Trade Integration Indicators Updated 28 January 2015: Manila, Philippines

Intra-regional trade share among South Asia Subregional Economic Cooperation (SASEC) countries increased from 2011-2013 as economic exchange within the region strengthened, although overall intra-Asia trade declined. SASEC intra-regional trade also increased in the first seven months of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013, yet its trade with the world decreased. Meanwhile, India's intra-regional trade is growing, appreciating by 29% among SASEC countries. Comparatively, trade within the region increased for Bangladesh, Maldives, Nepal, and Sri Lanka.

Bangladesh Potential in Economic Expansion Placed at 7.3% 22 January 2015: Dhaka, Bangladesh

Asian Development Bank Chief Economist Shang Jin-Wei has put Bangladesh's potential to grow at 7.3%, above its current average of 6%. Despite its vast infrastructure needs, this makes Bangladesh one of the top 20 global performers in economic expansion. To continue this level of growth, it needs a reliable supply of power to reduce the cost of doing business. It can tap into its inexpensive supply of working-age labor and increase bilateral integration such as the electricity transmission between Bangladesh and India.

Bhutan Prime Minister Tshering Tobgay Invites Green, Sustainable Investments in Bhutan 11 January 2015: Thimphu, Bhutan

Prime Minister of Bhutan Tshering Tobgay told investors at the 7th Vibrant Gujarat Summit on 11 January 2015 that Bhutan is open to clean, green and sustainable business proposals, including investments in renewable energy and hydropower. While Bhutan’s economy may be modest, the Prime Minister said it uses its resources wisely—fast flowing rivers are a source of renewable energy, agriculture is mostly natural or fully organic—without destroying the environment. He further emphasized that Bhutan gives more value to gross national happiness than to gross domestic product, and extended an invitation among those interested in doing value-based business to invest in Bhutan. Bangladesh: Future Middle-Income Country Status to Have No Effect on EU Trade Benefit

4 January 2015: Dhaka, Bangladesh

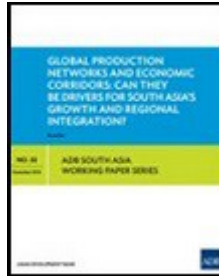

The Government of Bangladesh aims to graduate to middle-income country status by 2021. Economic indicators are positive and GDP growth has continued at more than 6% for the past several years. For now, Bangladesh enjoys zero-duty benefit on export to the European Union (EU) as a least developed country under the generalized system of preferences (GSP). Once it reaches middle-income status, it will not enjoy duty-free benefit under GSP but move to the 'GSP Plus' scheme. Bangladesh will have to sign four international conventions on human rights, labor rights, environment, and governance to enjoy GSP Plus benefit from the EU.
